

‘Doing more with less’ - Similar Terms and Expressions in Other Cultures/ Languages

Jugaad (alternatively Juggaar) is a colloquial Hindi-Urdu word that can mean an innovative fix or a simple work-around.

Bodge, an English term of similar meaning.

Kludge, an American-English term of similar meaning

Chindōgu, a Japanese term for useful but unusual inventions.

System D in French, is a shorthand term that refers to a manner of responding to challenges that requires one to have the ability to think fast, to adapt, and to improvise when getting a job done.

‘n boer maak ‘n plan is an Afrikaans expression which literally means ‘a farmer makes a plan’, but it is used to refer to thinking on one’s feet and coming up with a solution using whatever is available.

Source: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Main_Page (Accessed 29/07/2015)