

The Prince of Wales’s Business & Sustainability Programme
4th November – 7th November, Madingley Hall, Cambridge
Overview Programme

Day 1 - Sunday 4th November 2018

Delegate registration

1.1 Welcome and roadmap: the context for business and sustainability

Contributors: Dame Polly Courtice, Director and Aris Vrettos, Director, Open & International Programmes, University of Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership

1.2 Global connectivity and climate change

Contributor: Will Day, Faculty

1.3 Evening syndicate

Vegetarian buffet dinner

1.4 The case for healthy ecosystems

Contributor: Tony Juniper, Executive Director of Advocacy & Campaigns, WWF-UK , and Fellow, CISL

Day 2 – Monday 5th November 2018

2.1 Morning syndicate

2.2 Roadmap and reflection

2.3 What is happening to our climate?

Contributor: Emily Shuckburgh, Head of Polar Oceans Team, British Antarctic Survey

2.4 Doing business in an unequal world

Contributor: Kate Raworth, Senior Associate, CISL

2.5 The technology opportunity

Contributor: Katherine Chou, Head of Product – Google AI in Healthcare, Google

Vegetarian buffet lunch

2.6 Planet? It's the economy... Contributor: Dimitri Zenghelis, Joint-Head Policy, Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change, London School of Economics
2.7 Commercial implications Contributors: James Stacey and Munish Datta, Faculty
2.8 Business risks and opportunities
2.9 Afternoon syndicate
Pre-dinner reception
2.10 Why boards have to lead Contributor: Philippe Joubert, Chair, Earth on Board
Gala dinner

Day 3 - Tuesday 6th November 2018
3.1 Morning syndicate - leadership
3.2 Roadmap and reflection
3.3 Setting evidence-based targets, measuring and being transparent: a discussion with IKEA Contributor: Håkan Nordkvist, Head of Sustainable Innovation, IKEA Group
3.4 Dell's circular economy programme Contributor: Louise Koch, Faculty
3.5 Aligning organisational purpose, strategy and business models: Hammerson's Net Positive Strategy Contributor: Louise Ellison, Head of Sustainability, Hammerson plc
3.6 Carousels Contributors: Faculty
Vegetarian buffet lunch

3.7 Engage, collaborate and advocate change: Unilever’s leadership story (tbc) Contributor: Sue Garrard, Faculty
3.8 Business leadership challenges
3.9 Initiatives for change
3.10 Afternoon syndicate – individual leadership
3.11 Ethics of sustainability leadership: part I Contributor: Prof Marc le Menestrel, Assistant Professor, University of Pompeu Fabra Barcelona
Vegetarian pub dinner

Day 4 - Wednesday 7th November 2018
4.1 Morning syndicate
4.2 Roadmap and reflection Chair: Aris Vrettos, CISL
4.3 Ethics of sustainability leadership: Part II Contributor: Prof Marc le Menestrel, Assistant Professor, University of Pompeu Fabra Barcelona
4.3 Reflections on leadership and purpose
4.4 Understanding and influencing others Contributor: David Sales, Director, First Ascent
Vegetarian buffet lunch
4.5 The next 100 years Contributor: Lord Martin Rees of Ludlow, Fellow, Trinity College and Emeritus Professor of Cosmology and Astrophysics, Institute of Astronomy
4.6 Afternoon syndicate
4.7 Next steps and closing circle Chair: Aris Vrettos, CISL

