

Postgraduate Certificate in Sustainable Value Chains Participant Testimonials

Suthes Balasubramaniam Network Representative Global Compact Network Sri Lanka Based: Sri Lanka	It is an excellent compact course which give a broad and practical insight for practitioners to be more effective on the ground.
Jim Banister Product Director, Clubcard Tesco plc Based: UK	The programme is thoughtful, well-structured and fuelled by people who both care, and know a massive amount about sustainable business and supply chains. For what they don't know, they have brought in experts from across industry and academia through which that knowledge base is expanded. And if that collective group don't have some specific information or experience, the programme kindly provides one of the best sustainability business networks on the planet through which one can explore further. Anyone serious about exploring the present and future of sustainable enterprise will come out of this programme a more formidable advocate and activator. I feel I am.
Steven Betts Closed Loop Material Resource Manager Jaguar Land Rover Based: UK	The PCSVC brings together students from the global sustainability community. By approaching the topics in both an academic manner and introducing business leaders to bring the examples and challenges to life, the course is a great asset to anyone trying to improve or manage a value chain.
Mary Chandran Change Manager and Senior Consultant Cambridge Assessment Based: UK	PCSVC programme has given me in-depth understanding of sustainability in value chains. This is a great programme and fantastic people.
Andy Doran Senior Manager Sustainability & Recycling Development Novelis Based: UK	This CISL course has compiled the essential elements of emerging value chain thinking for sustainable business. That and the excellent and diverse cohort made this the most productive use of my time in 2014.
Jaison John Management Consultant Vineyard Consultants Based: UAE	It was truly a learning experience that has definitely added value towards my development as a more responsible individual and a sustainability professional.
Henrik Mollatt Senior Advisor IEH-Ethical Trading Initiative Norway Based: Norway	It was a privilege to attend PCSVC cohort 1. It felt like I was taking the first steps into a future the rest of the world inevitable will participate.

Yvette Nowell Head of RMB Fund Rand Merchant Bank Based: South Africa	We are all at different points on a continuum of sustainable practice, in our personal and professional lives. CISL offers participants education, challenge and inspiration at a number of appropriate intervals on this continuum, making a significant positive impact on our respective journeys towards sustainable behaviour change, action and influence.
Anakarina Pérez Oropeza Outreach and Events Manager FSC International Based: Germany	PCSVc was the missing piece in my career. I now see global sustainability challenges from a broader perspective and I now understand how the role of stakeholder collaboration is crucial in driving positive change. Today, more than ever, it is undoubtable that businesses, governments and civil societies need to work together. With the knowledge I have gained through PCSVC, I feel more empowered and motivated than ever to take action and to contribute towards creating spaces of sharing and innovation.
Eleanor Pinugu Executive Director Mano Amiga Academy inc Based: Philippines	The course equips you with the necessary knowledge and real world skills to develop strategies to address the complex challenges that come with pursuing sustainability within an organisation's value chain. It gives you access to individuals and organisations from various sectors, enabling you to learn from their diverse insights and experiences on how to successfully inspire and implement change.
Jamie Shaw Technical Specialist Whole Vehicle Sustainability Jaguar Land Rover Based: UK	Honoured to have been part of the first cohort on PCSVC, to do so at such a prestigious location and to have met such a great group of people from all over the world!
Hannah Shoesmith Head of CSR Mothercare Based: UK / Hong Kong	The PCSVC is a unique opportunity to explore the academic and practical imperatives for driving sustainability in value chains, as well as how to go about implementing this, with like-minded but diverse peers in a stunning environment.
Nilufar Verjee Commercial and Marketing Director Twin Based: UK	PCSVc is an excellent combination of academic teaching, group interaction and individual exploration. It's given me a broader understanding of sustainability challenges and a practical tool-kit to address them through my day-job.
Dr Carole anne Wilkinson Fabrics Product Sustainability Liaison W.L.Gore & Associates (Fabrics) Based: UK	Intensive view of the challenges as well as insight into solutions ( from a non sustainable background)